

2022 Young Scholars Program Mentor/Mentee Checklist

I. Expectations

The mentor/mentee relationship is crucial to developing a strong, competitive proposal during the Letter of Intent and Full Application phases. We encourage mentors and mentees to clearly define their roles and responsibilities together and to determine their method of communication to obtain and provide feedback.

II. Role: Mentor & Mentee

Mentor Role

- Serve as a thought partner through discussion and provide encouragement
- Act as a sounding board as the mentee works their ideas through
- Objectively review the mentee's proposal
- Respect the mentee's time and YSP deadlines

Mentee Role

- Respect mentor's time by being prepared with specific questions for guidance
- Provide mentor with your best/highest quality work
- Provide mentor with adequate time to address your requests and review your work to obtain their input
- Reflect on and be responsive to mentor's advice and guidance during application development

III. Proposal Responsibilities

Mentors: During Proposal Development

- Review the 2022 YSP Guidelines
- Provide constructive feedback on the research question(s), design, measures, analysis, and budget, particularly to ensure that ideas are clear, issues are targeted, and proposed work is empirically grounded
- Review at least one draft of the proposal and provide suggestions for improvement
- If asked, provide a letter of recommendation

Mentee: During Proposal Development

- Fully draft your proposal and seek feedback from your mentor
- Ask your mentor to review at least one draft of your proposal
- Ask your mentor to provide suggestions on how the proposal could be modified or improved

Letter of Recommendation (if applicable)

The most helpful letters of recommendation include an honest and critical evaluation of the applicant's proposed research and research capacity, which includes the following:

- A candid, scholarly evaluation of the proposed project, its feasibility in the time indicated, and its potential significance
- An assessment of the candidate's ability to carry out the project
- An assessment of the candidate's character and work ethic
- An outline of future interactions between the applicant and mentor (if applicable)
